O R D E R

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the "Defendant's Motion To Dismiss," filed June 25, 2006. After having carefully reviewed this pleading, it appears that the defendant may be entitled to dismissal as a matter of law, in particular, for the plaintiff's failure to exhaust his administrative remedies on his sole surviving claim of assault. You now have the opportunity to reply to the defendant's Motion. You may not allege new facts surrounding the events in question as part of your reply. You should base your reply and/or argument(s) solely on the allegations contained in your Complaint and/or the defendant's Motion to Dismiss.

PLAINTIFF CAMP PLEASE READ THIS:

You are further advised that you have thirty (30) days from the filing of this Order in which to file your reply and any documents, affidavits, or unsworn declarations you may wish to submit in opposition to the defendant's Motion. FAILURE TO RESPOND WITHIN THIS TIME PERIOD MAY SUBJECT THIS ACTION TO DISMISSAL.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the plaintiff has thirty (30) days from the filing of this Order in which to provide a reply, along with his own documents, affidavits, or declarations in opposition to the Motion to Dismiss filed by the defendant.

SO ORDERED.

Signed: June 28, 2006

Graham C. Mullen
United States District Judge
